

THE CITY.

OUR CITY SUBSCRIBERS, who fail to receive their paper regularly will confer a favor by making the fact known at our counting room. The consolidation of the several routes of the carriers of the UNION AND AMERICAN and of the DISPATCH, and the necessary reorganization under the new order, has been attended with some unavoidable confusion, but in a few days we can promise the old regularity.

We notice that travel through the city has increased considerably during the last few days.

QUIET.—Up to a late hour last night not an arrest had been reported at police headquarters.

THE Louisville Railroad bridge across the Cumberland is undergoing some repairs, designed to strengthen the structure.

THE weather yesterday was quite mild and pleasant, notwithstanding a rather fresh breeze from the direction of the boreal regions.

ANOTHER shipment of mules from the North, bound further South, arrived in the city yesterday. They were fine stock, and mostly young animals.

A FEVER is being constructed with much difficulty on High street, north of Broad. A great deal of labor is required to cut and blast through the solid rock, and the work, consequently, proceeds rather slowly.

CONCERNING the Dolbear and Pearl case, Recorder Foster announced yesterday morning that he had some further communications to read, which are connected with the case, and he therefore reserved his decision until a future day.

WILL PROBABLY SURVIVE.—Peleg Blakely, who took through mistake an overdose of morphine Tuesday afternoon to alleviate the pains of neuralgia, was still alive up to a late hour last night, and it is thought that he will survive.

PREPARING FOR WINTER.—We observe that the pleasant weather now is being actively improved by those whose roofs are leaky and out of repair. The number of tin roofs which have been put on since the recent great fires, which have devastated the city, is perfectly surprising.

ARRESTED.—Phillip Burns was yesterday arrested and brought before Squire Wilkinson on the charge of being one of the parties engaged in the stabbing affray which took place in the Metropolitan Saloon. He was sent to jail to await the action of the Grand Jury.

ARRESTED FOR HORSE STEALING.—Yesterday morning a man named Wm. Smith, was arrested in Edgefield, charged with having stolen a horse belonging to W. R. Lesure, who resides across the river. The parties appeared before Squire Mescham, and Smith was bound over to the Grand Jury with the papers pertaining to his case.

A RIVAL TO COLLINS.—We have received from Messrs. Ford, Connor & Co., of New Albany, Indiana, a specimen cast-steel axe, of their own manufacture, which is an improvement on the "Collins" which has been so long in use throughout the country. The course of mechanical skill, as well as that of empire "Westward takes its way." In a few weeks F. C. & Co. will be able to fill all orders.

A STRIKE AMONG THE COLORED LABORERS AT THE LANDING.—Yesterday afternoon the colored laborers who work at the levee, loading and unloading boats and barges, formed an association among themselves and struck for higher wages. The figure demanded is forty cents per hour. About two hundred have joined the combination, and pledge themselves not to work until their demands are acceded to.

GEN. W. G. HARDING offers for sale through our paper this morning, one thousand acres of the beautiful tract on which he resides. This magnificent estate has a reputation throughout the South. For agricultural purposes, coupled with the idea of a delightful home, the greatest inducements are offered.

He proposes, also, to dispose of a part of his thoroughbred stock. See advertisement.

SOME time since an unmarried woman, named Molly Cockrell, swore out an affidavit accusing a man named Alex. Byers with being the father of a male child, born near the close of October. A warrant was issued for the apprehension of the latter, and yesterday the officers succeeded in effecting his arrest. Meanwhile the illegitimate child, of which the defendant was sworn to be the father, had died. Under this phase of the case, the parties appeared before Squire Brien, who dismissed Byers with the payment of the costs.

CRIMINAL COURT.—In the case of the State vs. Lee Boyd, colored, charged with larceny, the jury returned a verdict of guilty, and adjudged sentence of five years in the penitentiary.

State vs. Felix Harris, colored, keeping a bagatelle table, the defendant was let off at costs.

State vs. Du Burke, colored, charged with larceny, case not yet decided upon.

R. S. Tutill and Frank McClure were sworn in as practicing attorneys.

RETURN OF GEN. LEWIS.—Gen. Lewis, Commissioner of the Freedmen's Bureau, returned yesterday from a trip to East Tennessee. The report he gives of the condition and prospects of the colored population throughout that portion of the State is extremely encouraging. Colored schools are rapidly on the increase, and the relations existing between the freedmen and their employers is of the most amicable and satisfactory character. There seems to be an increasing interest in the course of education, and the moral and religious status is becoming, he thinks, more elevated.

THE JUDGE MANN RESIDENCE AT AUCTION.—This valuable non-taxable property, on Broad street, at the corner of McLemore, will be sold at auction, on the premises, at 11 o'clock A. M., to-day, by Messrs. Anderson, Johnson & Smith. Such desirable property is not to be found in market once in ten years. A number of beautiful vacant lots adjoining the above property, and very desirable locations for residences, free from taxation, will also be offered for sale. The attendance of all persons desiring handsome property is invited. The sale will be on time, at six, twelve and eighteen months, or on terms corresponding favorable if any cash payments are made.

THE GOVERNMENT TAX ON COTTON.—We understand that the committee appointed by the Chamber of Commerce to decide in regard to the communication from the Memphis Chamber of Commerce, relative to raising a fund to pay the expenses of testing the legality of the present Government tax on cotton, have decided favorably and will proceed at once to collect money. They will also prepare a memorial on the subject and endeavor to obtain, if possible, a mitigation of present grievances in the manner of collecting the tax. As the law now stands, cotton is not allowed to be removed from the district where raised, until it has been weighed and inspected, putting the planters to great inconvenience and delay. There is certainly great need of reform in regard to this matter.

GREAT SALE OF CITY PROPERTY.—Messrs. A. Nelson & Co., and J. L. & R. W. Brown, sold $30,450 worth of city property yesterday. The property consisted of the house and lot known as the Norvell House, corner of Broad and Cherry streets, and was divided into lots which sold as follows: First lot, twenty-seven feet eight inches by seventy feet, $9,000; second lot, twenty-two feet front, $4,325; both to Ellis Bloomstein; third lot, fifteen feet three inches, $3,350, to S. H. Bradley; fourth lot, twenty-two by seventy feet, $3,750, to J. Lumsden; fifth lot, twenty-seven and three-fourths feet by one hundred and thirty, $5,825, to Moulton & Reed. They also sold twenty feet by one hundred and thirty, beyond the Johnson House, for $2,600, to J. J. McCann, and fourteen and a half feet on Cherry street, for $1,600, to John Vogel.

MISCEGENATION.—A white woman, named Kate Norman, and a negro named William Kelly, were before the Police Court yesterday on the charge of living together in adultery. It seems that the parties have been staying in a house near the old corporation stables. They were complained of to the police a day or two since and when the officer came to arrest the parties Kelly jumped out of the window of the woman's room and attempted a hasty retreat. He was captured, however, and together with his white innamorata was carried to the calaboose. Yesterday morning the parties were discharged, the court deciding that there was not sufficient evidence to justify the punishment of the parties.

A NOVELTY IN DOMESTIC ECONOMY.—THE PETROLEUM VAPOR STOVE.—A triumph of modern ingenuity and application of scientific principles is the petroleum vapor stove. Think of lighting your fire, broiling your beef steak, making tea or coffee, and baking biscuit all in the short space of twenty-five minutes; yet such can be done with the vapor stove. This really wonderful invention uses no chimney or flue, burns without smoke or smell, is so light and portable, especially the smaller sizes, that it can be moved about anywhere, and if economy is any object, will do the cooking of a small family for, say, seventy cents per week. We witnessed the operations of one of these vapor stoves yesterday, and are satisfied that nothing like it, for economy and convenience, has come before the public for years. A stove adapted especially to heating purposes is also constructed on similar principles. The petroleum stove has been in use for only a few months, but has met with astonishing success. Thousands have been sold in the Eastern cities, and wherever introduced it has proved more than satisfactory.

Columns might be written on the merits of the invention. Different sizes of the vapor stove are now on exhibition at the Chamber of Commerce, on College street, Wm. T. Sample, and E. B. Freeman, respectfully invite the ladies to call and witness the practical operations of this great invention.

A WANDERING AND ECCENTRIC VAGRANT.—Yesterday morning, an individual named H. De Lane, was brought before the Police Court on the charge of having attempted an assault upon one of our College street merchants. De Lane tells a strange story about himself. He says he was in the Confederate army during most of the war, and that, towards the close, he was wounded in the head, the ball entering precisely at the centre of the forehead and coming out at the crown of the head. In proof of this incredible story he points to a round irregular scar directly over the nose. His features are twisted into all sorts of queer shapes, and the eyes especially are drawn away into strange contortions. He wears his hair extremely long, falling in tangled and bushy curls over his shoulders. And when talking a loud whistling of the nose is particularly noticeable, his speech being similar to that of a person who has lost his palate. In looks, attire and manner he is extremely eccentric. He says he is conversant with many languages, which declaration is hardly to be doubted; but whether he has ever passed through the experiences in the army which he claims or not, he is certainly a noticeable character. About the conduct for which this individual was arrested, the following seem to be the particulars: De Lane has been circulating about the city for a number of days, craving charity, and telling a piteous tale of distress, or acting in an abrupt and arrogant manner, as the mood took him. On Tuesday he applied to the president of a charitable association in this city, for aid. A College street merchant, who was standing by, refused to give him anything, whereupon De Lane became extremely exasperated, drew a pocket-knife and menaced the merchant in a threatening manner. The aid of the police was called in, and the man was conveyed to the calaboose. Yesterday morning he was fined twenty-four dollars, and sent down to the workhouse.

SINGLETON, at the Postoffice, has the Waverly Magazine, Harper's Weekly, Frank Leslie's Illustrated Newspaper, the Budget of Fun for January, and the latest dailies.

NEW CARPET HOUSE.—Messrs. Beech, Manlove & Co., have opened a new carpet house at 53 College street, and have a complete assortment of the newest and best goods in their line. They are clever, reliable gentlemen, and will doubtless receive what they deserve, a liberal patronage. See their advertisement.

POLICE COURT.—There was a tolerable fair attendance at this institution yesterday morning, and the docket comprised quite a number of cases, none, however, of any special interest or importance.

A man named Elliott, who came from Wilson county, was arraigned on the charge of drunkenness. Elliott admitted to having taken to much Tom and Jerry, but claimed that it was the first time in a twelve month that he had imbibed of the intoxicating bowl. He was fined five dollars and sent on his way rejoicing.

Hogan Will, for dipping on Sunday, was fined twenty dollars.

Yorke Wood was fined five dollars for driving a hack without lights.

Jenny Davis and a man named Watt Baker were yesterday fined nine dollars for being drunk in the Shakespeare Saloon.

Molly Woods and a colored woman named Rebecca were fined twenty dollars for disorderly conduct.

Proceedings of the Supreme Court. NASHVILLE, December 5th, 1866.—The court met this day pursuant to adjournment. Judge Shackelford and Hawkins being present.

Attorneys, A. A. Swope, Thomas B. Murray, John P. Murray, James W. McHenry, Harvey Dillard, Holland Denton, E. L. Gardener, William H. DeWhitt, A. P. Hall and D. W. Peabody, were each respectively sworn as practicing attorneys of this court.

In the cases of M. C. Dibrell vs. James Cook et al., and G. G. Dibrell, Receiver, vs. A. J. Smith et al., diminutions of the records were suggested and writs of certiorari were ordered returnable instant.

In the case of F. Hyde vs. R. H. Watson, the death of the plaintiff was suggested, and the case continued.

In the case of Gilliam Upchurch vs. E. and S. Laberman, leave is given the parties until next term to supply the lost record.

The case of Joseph Heard et al. vs. Rebecca Scott, was revived in the name of Letwith Heard, the administrator.

The case of Tipton C. Settle vs. Wm. Toney was continued.

In the cases of the State vs. A. S. Huffines, State vs. David Brock, and State vs. James M. Allord, non-prosequi were entered, and the parties discharged.

F. M. Goolbsy vs. E. S. Kerby—revived in the name of the administration of Kerby. Also, a revivor in the case of Butler vs. Sadler.

The Court will resume the business of the 5th and 6th circuits again to-morrow, after which it will probably adjourn until the first Monday in January.

JESSE G. FRAZIER, Clerk.

"A SLIGHT COLD"—COUGHS.—Few are aware of the importance of checking a cough or "slight cold" in its first stage; that which in the beginning would yield to a mild remedy, if neglected, soon attacks the lungs. "Brown's Bronchial Troches" give sure and almost immediate relief.

"The Troches" have proved their efficacy by a test of many years, and have received testimonials from eminent men who have used them.
